Introduction

At Ivy Chimneys Primary School, part of the Epping Forest Schools Partnership Trust, we encourage all parents and pupils to approach any member of staff in the first instance if they have a concern or complaint.

In the event that these initial approaches fail to resolve a complaint, this policy lays out the procedures that should be followed to allay any concerns about a particular issue.

If you do not understand any part of this policy, please do not hesitate to contact the Headteacher. Your complaint will then be investigated fully, ensuring all relevant facts are taken into consideration.

For further information about current government legislation please see Appendix B.

Difference between a Concern and a Complaint

A 'concern' is 'an expression of worry or doubt over an issue considered to be important for which reassurances are sought'. A complaint is defined as 'an expression of dissatisfaction however made, about actions taken or a lack of action'.

We believe in trying to resolve complaints at the earliest possible stage. Many issues can be resolved informally, without the need to invoke formal procedures. At Ivy Chimneys Primary School we take informal concerns seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter as quickly as possible.

There are occasions when complainants would like to raise their concerns formally. In those cases, the formal procedure set out in this policy should be invoked.

Registering a Complaint

- I. Initially we would ask that a parent or pupil discusses the complaint with the relevant member of staff, usually the class teacher. However, if they have difficulty with discussing the issue with that member of staff, the complaint can be referred to another member of staff. Similarly, if the member of staff directly involved felt unable to deal with the complaint then another member of staff can be allocated to deal with the complaint in the first instance.
- II. If Local Governing Body members or Trust Staff are involved in a complaint at an early stage they must be made aware of the procedure to be followed for complaints and not act unilaterally outside the formal procedure.

- III. If a parent or pupil felt that their initial contact with a member of staff did not deal with the concern to their satisfaction, they should complete a Complaints Form (Appendix C) and return it to the Headteacher or Chair of the Local Governing Body if the complaint refers to the Headteacher. The contact details of Chairs of the Local Governing Body are available on the school website. If the complaint concerns the Local Governing Body then the complaints form should be returned to the Epping Forest Schools Partnership Trust office, for the attention of the CEO.

In summary the procedure is divided into three stages:

Stage 1 - aims to resolve the concern through informal contact at an appropriate level within the school.

- a) Contact the school and raise the concern with the appropriate member of staff. This will normally be the class teacher.
- b) The school will record your concern and ensure that appropriate person (if it not the person whom you have raised the concern with) is in contact with you as soon as possible.
- c) The school will investigate your concern and keep you informed.
- d) If you are not happy with how a concern has been resolved, you may raise a formal complaint at stage 2.

Stage 2 - is the formal complaint stage at which written complaints (either by letter or by completing Appendix C) are considered by the Headteacher or, where applicable, a designated Governor.

- a) Your written complaint should be addressed to the Headteacher. If your complaint concerns the Headteacher personally your complaint should be sent, via the school, to the Chair of the Local Governing Body.
- b) The school will acknowledge your complaint as soon as possible after it has been received. This will usually be within 3 school working days.
- c) As part of our consideration of your complaint the school will normally want to meet with you to discuss the complaint and fill in any details. If you wish, you can ask someone to accompany you to provide you with support.
- d) The Headteacher or Chair of the Local Governing Body may also be accompanied by a suitable person.
- e) Following the meeting we will investigate as required. This may involve talking to witnesses and taking statements.
- f) If the complaint is against a member of staff, it will be dealt with under our internal confidential procedures as required by law.
- g) The Headteacher or Chair of the Local Governing Body will keep written, signed and dated, records of all meetings, telephone conversations and related documentation.
- h) Once the school have established the relevant facts you will be sent a written response to your complaint. This will give a full explanation of the decisions and the reasons. If follow up action is needed the school will indicate what they are proposing.

- i) You may be invited to a follow up meeting to discuss this letter.
- j) If you are not satisfied you may progress to stage 3.

Stage 3 - involves a formal hearing by the Local Governing Body complaints appeals panel and may be enacted once stage 2 has been worked through.

- a) If your complaint has been through stages 1 and 2 and you are not happy with the outcome, following a written request, a complaints appeal panel will be established.
- b) The purpose of this arrangement is to give your complaint a hearing in front of a panel of Governors who have no prior knowledge of the details of the complaint and who can, therefore, consider it without prejudice.
- c) The aim of a complaints appeal panel is to resolve the complaint and to achieve reconciliation between the school and the parent/carer. We recognise, however, that it may sometimes only be possible to establish facts and make recommendations which will reassure you that we have taken your complaint seriously.
- d) The process for this is set out in section 'Complaints Appeal Panel' below.

Resolving Complaints

- a) The school will always work with the complainant to resolve all complaints, to every ones satisfaction, at the earliest possible stage.
- b) There will be occasions when, despite all stages of the complaint procedure having been followed, the complainant remains dissatisfied. If we have done everything we can in response to a complaint it is a poor use of time and resources to reply to repeated letters, emails or telephone calls making substantially the same points.
- c) If a complainant tries to re-open the same issue, the Chair of the Local Governing Body can inform them that the procedure has been completed and that the matter is now closed. If the complainant contacts the school again on the same issue, then the correspondence may be viewed as 'serial' or 'persistent' and the school may choose not to respond.
- d) Therefore, in cases where a school is contacted repeatedly by an individual making the same protracted points we may need to close the complaint.
- e) However, the school must not mark a complaint as 'serial' before the complainant has completed the procedure.

Complaints Appeal Panel

The Chair of the Local Governing Body (LGB) will convene a Complaints Appeal Panel

- a) If necessary, the Chair of the LGB will convene a Complaints Appeal Panel (Appendix D) consisting of three members who should not have been involved in the early stages of the complaint at least one member of the panel will be independent of the management and running of the school and this will normally be a Trustee of the Epping Forest Schools Partnership Trust (they will elect their own Chair). A Clerk will be appointed to the panel who will set the date, time and venue of the hearing, ensuring that the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible. They will aim to arrange for the panel meeting to take place within 20 school working days. They will collate any written material and send it to the parties in advance of the hearing, meet and welcome the parties as they arrive at the hearing, record the proceedings and notify all parties of the panel's decision.

- b) This Complaints Appeal Panel is the last school based stage of the complaints process. Individual complaints will not be heard by the whole LGB as this would compromise the impartiality of any panel set up for a disciplinary hearing against a member of staff following a serious complaint.
- c) It is important that the appeal hearing is independent and impartial and that it is seen to be so. No governor may sit on the panel if they have had a prior involvement in the complaint or in the circumstances surrounding it. In deciding the make-up of the panel, governors need to try and ensure that it is a cross-section of the categories of governors and sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation
- d) The aim of the hearing, which needs to be held in private, will always be to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant. The panel chair will ensure that the proceedings are as welcoming as possible. Extra care needs to be taken when the complainant is a child. Careful consideration of the atmosphere and proceedings will ensure that the child does not feel intimidated. The panel needs to be aware of the views of the child and give them equal consideration to those of adults. Where the child's parent is the complainant, it would be helpful to give the parent the opportunity to say which parts of the hearing, if any, the child needs to attend.
- e) The chair of the panel needs to ensure that the complainant is notified in writing of the panel's decision, with the panel's response; this is usually within 10 school working days of the hearing.

Complaints Review Panel

If necessary, the Clerk to the Board of Trustees will convene a Complaints Review Panel consisting of three members who should not have been involved in previous stages of the complaint. The members of the Complaints Review Panel may involve members of the Board of Trustees (they will elect their own Chair). The Clerk to the Board of Trustees will set the date, time and venue of the hearing, ensuring that the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible

- a) The Clerk will ask you whether you wish to provide any further written documentation in support of your complaint. You can include witness statements or ask witnesses to give evidence in person if you wish.

- b) The Clerk will explain that you may wish to attend the meeting of the complaints review panel and that, if you wish, you may be accompanied to this meeting.
- c) The Headteacher will be asked to prepare a written report for the panel. Other members of staff directly involved in matters raised in your complaint will also be asked to prepare reports or statements.
- d) The Clerk will inform you, the Headteacher, any relevant witnesses and members of the panel by letter, at least five school working days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. We hope that you will feel comfortable with the meeting taking place in the school; but we will do what we can to make alternative arrangements if you prefer.
- e) With the letter, the Clerk will send you all relevant correspondence, reports and documentation about the complaint and ask whether you wish to submit further written evidence to the panel.
- f) The letter will explain what will happen at the panel meeting and the Clerk will also inform you that you are entitled to be accompanied to the meeting. The choice of person to accompany you is your own, but it is usually best to involve someone in whom you have confidence but who is not directly connected with the school. They are there to give you support but also to witness the proceedings and to speak on your behalf if you wish.
- g) With the agreement of the chair of the panel, the Headteacher may invite members of staff directly involved in matters raised by you to attend the meeting.
- h) As a general rule, no evidence or witnesses previously undisclosed should be introduced into the meeting by any of the participants. If either party wishes to do so, the meeting will be adjourned so that the other party has a fair opportunity to consider and respond to the new evidence.
- i) In closing the meeting, the chair will explain that the panel will now consider its decision and that written notice of the decision will be sent to the Headteacher and yourself within two weeks. All participants other than the panel and the Clerk will then leave.
- j) The panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented in order to:
 - reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the complaint;
 - decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint;
 - recommend, where appropriate, to the Headteacher and the Local Governing Body changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that similar problems do not happen again.
- k) The Clerk will send you and the Headteacher a written statement outlining the decision of the panel within two weeks. The letter will explain what further recourse, beyond the Local Governing Body, is available to you.

Time Limits

Complaints need to be considered, and resolved, as quickly and efficiently as possible and within realistic time limits that may be set by the appointed member or Headteacher and agreed by the complainant.

Review of Complaints

- The LGB will monitor the level and nature of complaints and review the outcomes on a regular basis to ensure the effectiveness of the procedure and make changes where necessary. The Headteacher will report any official complaints in the Headteacher's Report to the LGB.
- As well as addressing an individual's complaints, the process of listening to and resolving complaints will contribute to school improvement. When individual complaints are heard the Local Governing Body may identify underlying issues that need to be addressed. The monitoring and review of complaints by the school, the Local Governing Body and the Board of Trustees will be a useful tool in evaluating the school's performance.

Publishing the Procedure

There is a legal requirement for this Complaints Procedures to be publicised. Each school will include this information on the school website.

Other Sources of Information and Advice

If your concern is about an aspect of special educational needs and disability provision, which might include information about relevant voluntary organisations and support groups in Essex, you might like to talk to the SEND Information, Advice and Support service, the helpline number is 0333 013 8913 or complete the SENDIASS Parent/Carers Contact Form via the Essex County Council website.

The Role of Education and Skills Funding Agency

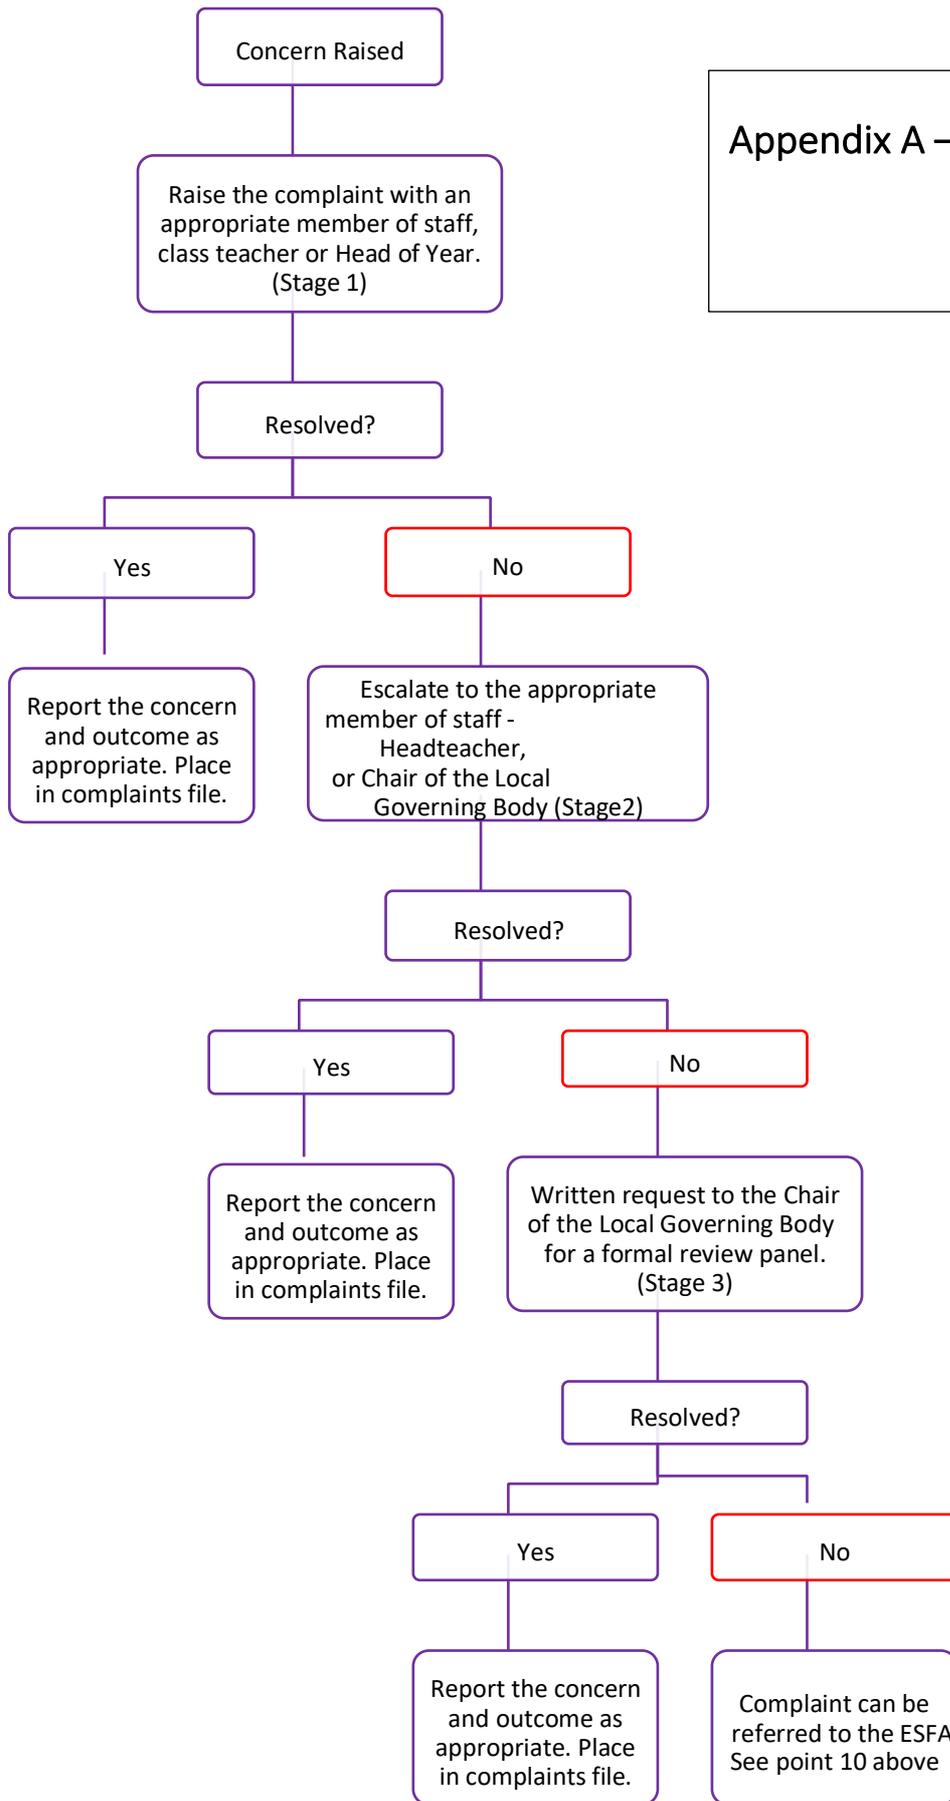

- a) If a complaint comes to the ESFA they will check whether the complaint has been dealt with properly by the school. The ESFA will consider complaints about schools that fall into any of the following three areas:
 - I. Where there is undue delay, or the school did not comply with its own complaints procedure when considering a complaint.
 - II. Where the school is in breach of its funding agreement with the Secretary of State.
 - III. Where a school has failed to comply with any other legal obligation.

- b) The ESFA will not overturn a school's decision about a complaint. However, if they find a school did not deal with a complaint properly they will request the complaint is looked at again and procedures meet the requirements set out in the Regulations.
- c) ESFA complaints can be submitted by following the link

Review

This Policy will be reviewed every 3 years.

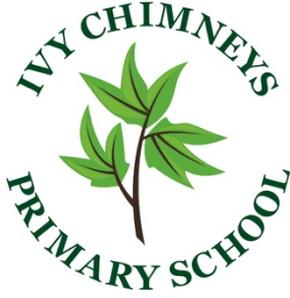

Appendix A – PROCESS SUMMARY

Appendix B - LEGISLATION

All academies must have a complaints procedure. This must meet the standards set out in the Education (Independent School Standards England) Regulations 2014 Schedule 1, Part 7.

The Regulations set out how complaints procedures should be drawn up and used effectively to handle complaints from parents of pupils.

Appendix D - Complaints Appeal Panel Procedure for Local Governing Body

The complaints panel will consist of 3 members. At least one member of the panel will be independent of the management and running of the school and this will usually be a Trustee of the EFSPT (they will elect their own Chair). The panel will have a Clerk who shall play no part in the decision-making process.

The complainant should submit the details of their concerns, in writing, to the Clerk. The Clerk will seek similar written responses from the school. These should be received from both parties 10 school working days before the hearing and shared with both parties 5 school working days before the hearing.

The complainant (who may be accompanied by a friend if they wish) and representative(s) from the school (who may also be accompanied by workplace colleagues or representatives from their professional associations) will be invited to attend the panel hearing in order to clarify the matter.

The panel meeting is intended to be investigatory, rather than adversarial, the persons giving evidence or making representations to the panel will do so separately.

The panel chair makes the introductions and outlines the proceedings. The chair of the panel has the discretion to adjourn the hearing where new information is introduced – or for other reasons.

The complainant is invited to explain the complaint, followed by their witnesses.

The panel may question both the complainant and their witnesses.

The complainant is asked to sum up the complaint.

The Headteacher is then invited to explain the school's action and be followed by any school witnesses.

The panel may question both the Headteacher and the witnesses.

The Headteacher is asked to sum up the school's action and response to the complainant.

The panel may also have access to the records kept of the process followed.

The complainant and the school representative(s) will be informed in writing of the outcome, usually within 5 school working days of the panel meeting.

The Local Governing Body complaints panel is the last school-based stage in the complaints process.
